

Working together to prevent suicide + help save lives.

DEMYSTIFYING THE DATA

Understanding Trends In Suicide & The Mental Health Crisis In NYC

WEDNESDAY,
MAY 29, 2024
12-1PM

The abundance of information available on suicide and mental health can be overwhelming, especially with so many sources, including social media, news, and personal networks.

That's why our free webinar is essential to provide you with accurate and up-to-date insights into the latest research and data on these critical mental health issues in New York City.

To register for this *free* webinar
go to: <https://bit.ly/sams-ed-may29>

REGISTER TODAY!

Navigating the Information

Delving into the data and information surrounding suicide and mental health, recognizing the challenges posed by the overwhelming volume of sources and perspectives.

Exploring The Latest
Data

Analyze the latest reports and trends from reputable sources like the CDC, YRBS, and DoHMH, providing attendees with a comprehensive understanding of the current landscape of suicide and mental health issues.

Utilizing Data For Prevention

By examining these trends, we'll gain valuable insights into the scope of the suicide and mental health crisis in NYC, empowering participants to utilize this information as a guiding framework for more targeted and impactful suicide prevention efforts within the community.

Samaritans' Public Education Program is made possible with funding from NYC Council Members:

Speaker Adrienne Adams, Carmen De La Rosa, Robert Holden, Farah N. Louis, Linda Lee, Mercedes Narcisse, Chi Osse, Vickie Paladino, Keith Powers, Carlina Rivera, Inna Vernikov

You don't have to face it alone.